

CHESHIRE BEEKEEPERS ASSOCIATION
The Annual General Meeting of Stockport Beekeepers at Woodford
Community Centre on February 11, 2026, starting at 7.30 p.m.

MINUTES of the MEETING

Present from the committee were: Peter Carefoot (Chairperson and minute taker), David Lilley, Alistair Taylor, Dermot Carty, Amanda Dixon, Sue McGuinness, Sue Payge, Alan Towse, Brian Hoy, Liz Sparkes, Jeni Whyatt.

1. Opening remarks from the Chair.

Good evening. I hope you've read the 2025 Branch Report, so I won't dwell on last year. I want to express my deepest gratitude to everyone who has supported and helped us in so many ways. Our committee is brimming with energy, and we're entering 2026 with both challenges and exciting ideas.

The yellow-legged hornet is here to stay, and there's also a concern about other diseases. Jeni Whyatt has been appointed as our Pest and Disease Manager, and we're planning to support Stockport Beekeepers in their fight against the YLH.

A Biodiversity Day is scheduled for May at the Woodbank Centre with the involvement of eco groups, schools, and local wildlife groups. We're also in the early stages of developing a children's bee club, which will be a challenging but rewarding enterprise requiring specialist help.

The Honey Show will move from Woodford to Woodbank in October and will feature demonstrations and opportunities for local schools and groups to get involved.

We'll also be looking at ways to improve our beginner's classes, as there aren't enough places to meet demand. We'll focus on developing the best beekeepers possible.

Margaret has created a full and promising year of talks, and Alan will introduce bees to three schools, including the Special Needs High Peak School.

We hosted a Barclays bank team at the apairy in exchange for financial support. This growing interest from companies keen to associate with beekeeping is creating sponsorship opportunities.

We have a busy year ahead, and to deliver this, we need more volunteers to lend their hands and support our existing helpers. You can contact any committee member to find out how you can support SBKA.

Thank you.
